MOTHER VISITS

Bowen Repeats Story He Told Police—Eddie Green Has Chance for Recovery.

assisted in the brutal beating and hold-up of Eddie Green and Mike Globenfelt last Thursday night, was visited in the jail yesterday by his mother, Mrs. Caroline Bowen. The mother of the boy could not believe the story of the boy's confession until she heard it from his own lips. The boy repeated the story he has told the police with reference to the affair. Both mother and son wept while the harrowing story of the crime was retold.

Dick Baker, the pal of Arthur Bowen, who, by Bowen's confession, is marked as the leader in the holdup of the junk dealers, as well as in other crimes, reas the leader in the holdup of the junk! dealers, as well as in other crimes, refused yesterday to see his father. John Baker. The father went to the jail and received permission to see the prisoner. The boy, however, declined, without giving any reason for so doing, to see his father. Mr. Baker said he knew of no reason why his son should decline to see him, unless it was because of the fact that he was ashamed to meet him again. that he was ashamed to meet him again With remarkable vitality, Eddie Green the victim of the horrible assault, stil lingers close to death. His condition yes terday was slightly improved, but physicians in charge still say that chances are against his recovery. is a possibility, however, that he may survive the injuries.

Old Resident of Salt Lake Dies Suddenly at Home of Heart Failure.

Failure.

Sidney W. Darke, an old resident of Salt Lake, died last night at 10 o'clock at his home, 300 West Sixth South street, of heart failure. The death came unexpectedly and after a brief illness.

Sidney W. Darke was born in Birmingham, England. in 1842. He came to America about 1862 and made Salt Lake his home. At one time he was a writer for The Herald. Later he was a professor of mathematics at the university. After teaching several years he went into the real estate business and later practised law. He was prominent in the organization of the Democratic party in this state. He was a deacon and financial secretary of the First Baptist church.

What has hitherto been known as the Second ward branch, comprising the territory between Third and Fifth East streets and from Ninth to Tenth South, was organized last evening as Liberty ward. Hyrum J. Smith was appointed bishop, Dr. Jenkin Thomas first counselor and Hyrum G. Olson second counselor. Hugh J. Cannon, president of Liberty stake, and Apostie Francis M. Lyman were present at the meeting at which the ward was organized.

OBSEQUIES OF GEO. SPEIRS

He Was Working His Way Through College When Stricken by Appendicitis.

Funeral services for George Speirs, aged 23, a student of the department of yesterday afternoon from the undertaking parlors of O'Donnell & Co. The interment was in the City cemetery.

Young Speirs was stricken by appendi-Arthur Bowen, the confessed thug who ssisted in the brutal beating and hold-up ease at the L. D. S. hospital Thursday evening.

John D. Speirs, a brother of the deceased, from Rexburg, Ida., took charge of the funeral services. Four of the young man's teachers from the L. D. S. university were present at the services. Professor Nelson offered the opening prayer and Professor Harold Goff of the Ricks academy and Professor O. A. Kirkham were the speakers. Matthew Spears of Tooele offered the closing prayer. The grave was dedicated by Professor Kirkham. Appropriate music was furnished by a quartet.

LETTERS TO SANTA CLAUS

Just before Christmas each year scores of touching appeals to Santa Claus are sent through the postoffice. The little folks are in the great majority, of course, in making their requests of the saint from whom all things come at Christmas, but there are any number of grown-up people who have made their plea to be remembered. Among these are some of the most prominent citizens in Salt Lake. A peep at the contents of the missives addressed to Santa Claus discloses a variety of desires, some complaint, but altogether the letters are thankful in tone. Here are a few of them:

the letters are thankful in tone. Here are a few of them:

"Dear Santa Claus: I would have written you before, but I have been so infernal busy with the city council that it slipped my mind. You will be pleased to hear that I have had a prosperous year, and have paved the way for the millions of our posterity during the year. There is one thing I should like very much to have, and that is a new and adequate bond issue by the city. Yours truly,

"Dear Uncle Santy (you don't mind me calling you Santy, do you?): If you are sending out any presents this year, please let me have Joe Sullivan and Joe Garcia. The boys won't be happy until they get them.

promoters generally resumed business today.

With few exceptions, the entertainments were such as had been given before Justice O'Gorman's strict interpretation of the Sunday closing law interfered, and after two "blue" Sundays, resulted in the adoption by the aldermen of a more liberal ordinance. The exceptions were the moving picture shows of the east side, which were not allowed to open, although proprietors of some promised to picture only biblical scenes. The peep shows of the penny arcade, however, were held permissible, a line of easy distinction being drawn between views that moved and those that stood still.
The theatres, opera houses and higher that moved and those that stood still. The theatres, opera houses and higher class music halls continued closed as before. The vaudeville houses confined their programs to sketches, monologues, stereopticon exhibitions and singing. The only departure of consequence from the week day presentations was that stage "business" was eliminated. Costumes, scene shifting and "make-ups" were barred. Dancing was also prohibited on the stage, but for those who would dance for their own entertainment, the dancing academies were open. Skating rinks, too, were again in full swing. were again in full swing.

The freedom from arrests of the day convinced police headquarters that the theatrical people generally had observed both the spirit and the letter of the law.

KEPT OPEN SUNDAY AND WERE ARRESTED

(Special to The Herald.) Boise, Ida., Dec. 22.—The arrest of two saloonmen for keeping open on Sunday aroused much interest tolay. It was thought a concerted movement might under way for some further attack on the Sunday rest law. But it could not be un-derstood as Bolse has a city ordinance under which saloons have been kept closed for eighteen months. It does not appear, after investigation. that the two men arrested today, William Connell and J. W. Johnson, represent any general movement. They were arrested general movement.
